

Brain DrainAnswer :*Get involved

1- study the table and answer these questions.

- a. united states holds the highest population of doctors.
- b. united states.
- c. I see that the percentage of immigrants from lower income countries is higher than the % of immigrants from Developed countries.
- d. I infer from the table the united is the first countries concerning the no of doctors, no of immigrants also the % of immigrants from lower-income countries.

Read and discover

2- skim the text and find the countries which receive intellectual graduates.

Canada, the united states, Australia, western Europe.

3- Answer these questions from the text

- a. Some countries richer than others because of the educational levels of the population
- b. it's a old phenomene, it was noticed as early as the 1960 s.
- c. we can motivate highly skilled workers to stay in their countries through investment in education, tempting salaries, improving the quality of life, educational . opportunities for children and job security.

4- rearrange these ideas in the order in which they appear in the text.

Idea	Order
a. Brain drain decreases economic development	1
b. Countries of origin do not keep records of highly educated professionals who emigrate to developed countries	3
c. Once educated people are motivated, educational opportunities will become fruitful	2

5- Fill in the chart with ideas that express cause or effect

Cause	Effect
Highly educated people leave the country	May not lead to faster growth
There is a little doubt that highly educated workers in many developing countries are care.	Income in developing countries will rise
Tempting salaries-improving the quality of life-educational opportunities for children and job security	Highly skilled workers prefer to emigrate to richer countries
The definition of international immigrants differs from one country to another	It's difficult to measure precisely the flow and scope of Brain Drain.

6- Which of the following are opinions, facts or examples? Tick the correct option

Statements	Opinion	Fact	Example
a. Some countries are poor while others are rich		X
b. Perhaps the oldest question in economics is why some countries are rich while others are poor	X
c. Canada is one of the countries that receive great numbers of intellectuals from countries undergoing development			X
d. Brain drain negatively affects the economic growth of the country of origin		X
e. Reducing wage differential may decrease the flow of brain drain.	X
f. Some receiving countries, like the United States, have their own definitions of immigration			X

Have your say

From my angle vision, there are too many causes behind brain drain, firstly: low wages, secondly a bad working conditions, thirdly , lack of challenge and motive in the jobs fourthly : search for better life I mean security for themselves and their families.