

Restrictive and Non-restrictive Clauses

Answer :

1- Read this text and copy down clauses introduced by “ who “ , “ which ” or “ whose ”

- a. birou anise, who is now
- b. mea sures which aim
- c. web site, whose aim

2- Underline the relative pronouns in the clauses you have copied.

Who – which – whose

3- match these statements with the sentences above.

I have only one brother who graduated the university and emigrated to Canada.

4- Fill in the blanks in (a-e) with the corresponding restrictive clauses in (1-5) .
Add commas where necessary.

- a. Philip Emeagwali who is from Nigeria.
- b. African writers who settle down in England or the USA.
- c. Graduates whose will be given jobs with tempting salaries.
- d. The pan African Conference which focused on reversing brain drain into brain gain.
- e. Countries which also suffer from brain drain.

6- Work with a partner to match the phrases (a-e) with (1-5) to form relative clauses.

a....5 b....3 c....4 d....2 e....1