

Answer :

Situation in the village before the school was built	Situation in the village after the school was built
the children in the village had never seen a school, much less attended one. Most of the children went to work in the country side, tending fields or herding goats.	_Who where lucky enough to attend classes were forced to walk several miles over rough roads to the nearest school. _Abdesselam, had to show the children how to operate The taps without running water in their village.